ABSTRACT

Studying of ancient culture of Tajikistan has been limited for a long time by the antique and medieval monuments. It is historically determined that in the 4th - 3rd millennia B.C. Central Asia had been sealed by hunters and fishers tribes. The first sealed formers cultures were opened in the territory of south – east of Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan and Afghanistan. By the second millennium B.C. the traces settlements of wall tribes are noted. Tajikistan falls in the zone of settlement.
